

AD C 46 - C126 PLUTARCH

A wealthy man of letters and occasional public lecturer, Plutarch spent most of his life in his native town of CHAERON EA in Central Greece but went on several embassies to Rome. His 'Parallel lives' are ~~by~~ biographies of eminent Greek and Roman soldiers and statesmen.

Plutarch's sources were secondary

C46-120AD

Plutarch: Greek and Roman biography and history

C46 - C120 AD

PLUTARCH - Greek philosopher
and biographer. A native of BOEOTICA
he visited Rome and lectured there and was for 30 years a priest at DELPHI.
His "Parallel Lives" of famous Greeks and Romans, grouped in pairs for comparison, exemplifies the private virtues or vices of great men and has had great influence on European literature, notably in Shakespeare.

His MORALIA is a vast collection of philosophical essays

46-48 AD

ALEXANDER (nephew of Philo)
was procurator (Roman Gov)
of Judaea

AD 46

died 79 AD

PLINY THE ELDER

entered the military @ 23 yrs old served most of his 20 or 8 years
of duty as an officer in Germany where he rose in rank to commander of an Auxiliary Cavalry regiment

His nephew was PLINY the YOUNGER

46 AD

Plutarch was born about 46 AD
at Chaeronea in ~~Boeotia~~ Boeotia
where he later had a school.

In middle age he took up the priesthood at nearby
Delphi

46AD

Birth of PLUTARCH, Greek biographer and moralist.

46 AD

thrice become a Roman Province

46AD

1912Dates' J-BK

THRACIA (in east) became a Roman province.

C46-120AD.

Plutarch; Greek and Roman biography and history.

46-48

Alexander was procurator.
He was a nephew of the Jewish scholar Philo of Alexandria.

46 AD.

After AD. 120
died.

PLUTARCH was born 46 AD
died after AD 120.

From middle age onward
he held a priesthood
at Delphi. Plutarch was not a Roman.

46? AD - 120? AD

Greek Author PLUTARCH

"Parallel Lives" 46 biographies
of famous Greeks and Romans

AD 46/47

Paul and Barnabas are sent out to preach the good news in the Roman province of GALATIA. They preached together for 1 year